

New Mexico Military Institute Financial Statement for International Students - Part 1

The information requested below must be submitted to the New Mexico Military Institute Financial Aid Office before a Certificate of Eligibility (I-20) will be issued.

Financial Requirements

U.S. Immigration law requires all non-immigrant applicants to provide documentation verifying that they have sufficient funds to cover ALL necessary expenses while attending school. This documentation must be submitted to the admitting institution before an I-20 can be issued.

The amount that New Mexico Military Institute estimates is necessary to meet expenses for full time enrollment is given below. The total combined financial resources, including personal, family/sponsor, government and university sources, must equal or exceed this amount.

All bank statements or letters must be original (no photocopies will be accepted) and dated no more than six months prior to the intended date of entry. If you will be using your own personal resources or those of parents, family, or sponsors to provide all or a portion of your support, you must have the signature of the bank official where those funds are held.
