

McClure Hall

AGE

- McClure Hall was constructed around 1961

SIZE

- McClure Hall is approximately 26,250 S.F. in size with three primary floors

PURPOSE

- McClure Hall is the home of the mathematics and science classes.

HISTORY

- McClure Hall built in 1965 has received some minor through the years and the Science Laboratories have been renovated in 2017. In 2017 a green house has also been constructed just outside of McClure Hall

NAME

- McClure Hall was named in honor of Colonel John McClure
- Colonel John McClure was a graduate of Washington & Lee University, he taught Chemistry, Latin, and English at New Mexico Military Institute from 1905 to 1948.

