

University Articulation Agreement
Between Norwich University (NU) and New Mexico Military Institute (NMMI)
NMMI Associate of Arts Degree to NU Bachelor of Arts Degree
Criminal Justice Major
Date Of Agreement: 1/1/2016

Norwich University (NU) and New Mexico Military Institute (NMMI) share a common interest in facilitating the smooth transition of students transferring from NMMI to Norwich. The information provided here is intended to eliminate duplication of coursework and better integrate the Criminal Justice programs of both institutions. NMMI transfer students must meet the same admissions requirements and follow the same procedure as freshman applicants. NMMI graduates who choose to enter Norwich's Corps of Cadets will participate in "Rook" training.

All NMMI graduates entering Norwich will generally be granted Junior standing.

Norwich University will only accept transfer credit for courses graded with a C or higher.

This transfer credit information is also applicable to NMMI students who may enter other programs at NU.

This agreement will be reviewed every five years. Next review date: 1/1/2021

The table below presents the current B.A. degree requirements for the Criminal Justice major at NU as listed for the 2015-16 catalog and articulates how courses at NMMI will transfer and be applied to this major at NU.
