

New Mexico Military Institute Employment Opportunity

Junior College Head Tennis Coach/HPER Instructor and GAC Assistant

NMMI is a state-supported, co-educational college preparatory high school and junior college, complete with Junior and Senior ROTC programs. With a Corps of Cadets numbering up to 1000 young men and women, NMMI provides an accredited college preparatory curriculum on the high school level. The junior college prepares graduating cadets for transfer to senior colleges. Since 1909, NMMI has been recognized as a Distinguished Military School.

New Mexico Military Institute (NMMI) is accepting applications to fill the position of Junior College Head Tennis Coach. This is a permanent full time, 10-month position reporting to the Director of Athletics. NMMI is a state-supported, co-educational college preparatory high school and junior college, complete with Junior and Senior ROTC programs. The JC Head Tennis Coach organizes, prepares schedules and conducts individual and team practices, training and competition; coaches and recruits student-athletes in accordance with NJCAA rules and regulations; directs all aspects, areas, and components of men's and women's tennis teams; coordinates all strategic aspects of the men's tennis program; represents the tennis program to various institutional programs, externally to the media, government agencies, students, parents, and the general public; manages daily operations of the tennis program; directs, supervises, and coordinates all administrative facets; performs miscellaneous job-related duties as assigned; teaches physical education courses and assists in the Godfrey Athletic Center as directed by the athletic director. Annual Salary DOE: $30,000 – $34,000. Excellent benefits available. A Bachelor's degree in a related field or discipline and 1-3 years collegiate coaching experience directly related to the duties and responsibilities specified, is required. A Master's degree in a related field or discipline is preferred with five to seven years' experience directly related to the duties and responsibilities specified. Collegiate playing experience is strongly preferred. Applications will be accepted at the NMMI HR Office until position is filled. NMMI is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Application, resume, letter of interest, and transcripts are accepted at the NMMI HR Office, Lusk Hall, 101 W College Blvd, Roswell, NM 88201. NMMI Applications are available at HR and at the NMMI website at <https://www.nmmi.edu/human-resources/employment-opportunities/>